

We need less monopoly and more competition in all aspects of our lives. This is especially important in radio and television, because so many of our citizens get their news and comment from such media. And we can not have a functional democracy without people having access to a wide range of options. I urge you to retain the limitations on media cross-ownership, multiple ownership, national ownership and dual network ownership.